Dear Dave:

I am enclosing herewith a clipping which appeared in last night's Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. I am wondering whether the change came about because of the matters we are working on.

Sincerely,

William T. Coleman, Jr.

CIA Official Named To State Dept. Post

Washington, March 3—(AP)—G. Marvin Gentile, an official of the Central Intelligence Agency, has been appointed deputy assistant secretary of state for security.

Gentile succeeds John Reilly, who resigned last November.

Gentile, 42, was a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation between 1946 and 1952, when he joined the CIA. He served CIA in "various executive capacities having to do with security matters," a State Department announcement said.
